Test Costs

All test fees are to be sent to NSW ISA with the test application form. A test will not be booked unless NSW ISA has received the payment.

Fees for Singles and Pairs Tests

Preliminary, Elementary, Pre-Primary - $40

Primary - $45

Novice, Junior, Senior - $50

Fees for Dance Tests

Elementary, Pre-Primary - $45

Primary - $50

Novice, Junior, Senior - $55

If a skater is doing a whole Elementary or Pre-Primary test, ie Pattern and Technical, the cost is $40. If a skater is doing Pattern only, or Technical only, the cost is still $40. Obviously it is more economical to do both parts together if the skater is ready.

Hunter Ice Skating Club (HISC) Membership

HISC membership 2011 - $25 (new membership)

HISC membership 2011 - $25 plus $10 late fee (renew membership after 1 March 2011)

All test applicants must be members of the Hunter Ice Skating Club. HISC membership should be submitted to the HISC Membership Secretary.

NSW Ice Skating Association (NSWISA) Membership

NSW ISA Junior (under 16) membership 2011 - $125

NSW ISA Senior (16 and over) membership 2011 - $155

All test applicants must be a full Junior or Senior member of NSW ISA to be eligible to take NSW ISA tests. You may need to upgrade. Basic membership is $40, but to do a test you need to have either junior or senior membership. Junior (under 16) membership costs $125 and senior (16 and over) costs $155, so if you have already paid basic membership, you will need to pay the extra required, that is, $85 for junior or $115 for senior.

Rink Entry Cost

Each rink has its own arrangement for rink entry, so that will vary for each test, and will be payable at the time of entry to the test rink.

Coach Fees

Each coach may also charge a fee for accompanying you to your test. Check with your coach and they will tell you what they normally charge.

Test Application Forms

All test application forms, along with cash, credit card details, or a cheque/money order payable to NSW Ice Skating Association, must be sent to NSW ISA at least four (4) weeks prior to the nominated test. Forms with credit card details can be faxed, or alternatively they can be mailed. Contact details for NSW ISA are available on the NSW ISA web site – www.nswisa.com.
