

Hi All,

Kel and Brad have now completed 2 of the shows, 'Moon River Festival Show' and 'Vegas on Ice'. Each show is over approximately a week, and they have now commenced performances of the 'Christmas Variety Spectacular'.

The shopping centre is open this weekend for 24 hours, and the cast will perform 4 times a day. 11am, 3pm, 7pm and 11pm. Their final performances are on Monday the 24/12, and they have Christmas Day off. To Party, I'm sure.

The kids fly out of Singapore on Wednesday afternoon, with a stop-over at Midnight in Kuala Lumpur. Kel and Brad leave the rest of the cast there and arrive Thursday morning approx 10am, into Sydney. (This is assuming they let them both on the plane, their luggage was close to the mark before they left, so for those of you who know Kelly, in particular, God knows what it will weigh now???)

We have spoken on many occasions and Kel says they are having a wonderful time, performing, shopping, sightseeing etc. When they have long days with performances and rehearsals it is very tiring, but a fabulous experience.

Thankyou to everyone who has sent their best wishes to Kel and Brad, we have passed the messages on, and they love to hear from everyone.

They send everyone best Wishes, for a Very Merry X-Mas, and look forward to seeing you for the New Year.

Anne.
